PRAYER UPON ENTERING: Merciful God, we humbly implore You to cast the bright beams of Your light upon Your Church that we, being instructed by the doctrine of the blessed apostles, may walk in the light of Your truth and finally attain to the light of everlasting life; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

WELCOME: We cordially welcome you to the Lord's Service this day. If you are worshipping with us for the first time, the following suggestions may be helpful to you:

- The Divine Service is printed on the panel.
- Hearing devices are available. Please ask an usher for assistance.
- The time before the service is a time of prayer and preparation to receive the gifts of salvation. In addition to prayer, look over the readings and the words to the hymns during this preparation time. A booklet entitled, "The Divine Service" located in the pew rack may also assist you in understanding worship at Trinity.
- Please silence all cell phones and refrain from taking pictures. Thank you.
- Visitors, please sign the guest register located in the Narthex.

GUESTS AND THE LORD'S SUPPER: If you desire to commune, please speak to one of the Pastors before the service. Our altar is open to those who confess oneness with us in doctrine, are members of our congregation or sister congregations of the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod and are not under church discipline in another congregation. All others are invited to come forward to receive a blessing. If you are not receiving the sacrament, you may indicate this by crossing your arms over your chest in the shape of an X.

ONLINE BIBLE STUDY: A study of the scripture readings and hymns of the week will be available on our website on Friday mornings under the "Worship with Us Online" section and following the "Weekly Bible Study" button. This study is led by Pastor Mech and Pastor Berg. Be sure to subscribe to our YouTube channel so you get notified of new content. Online Bible Study content will be updated and available every Friday morning.

TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH, SCHOOL, AND CHILDCARE PODCAST: You can also listen to the weekly Bible Study and the Sermon of the week on our website, on the go on your phone, on your computer in your favorite music player, or in your car -- just by searching "Trinity Lutheran Sheboygan" in your favorite podcast application. It is available on all major Podcast platforms. The Sermon for that week will be available Sunday Afternoon after the 8am Divine Service. Be sure to subscribe to the Podcast in your favorite player so you can get notified when new episodes are added.

PARENTS OF YOUNG CHILDREN: Welcome to Trinity. We are glad you are here and have brought your children to worship. We invite you to use the church bags, Bibles, and children's bulletins found at each entrance to the sanctuary. While we want children to participate in the entire Divine Service, we understand that there may be times when you must leave the service for a little while. At these times, you may use the Music Room, located next to the Narthex, or the Luther Room, located downstairs across from the restrooms. Both locations have the livestream of the service televised so you can continue to follow along. Changing tables are in the music room restroom and the restrooms downstairs. Please ask an usher if you need assistance.

FLOWERS & GIFTS GIVEN THIS SUNDAY TO THE GLORY OF GOD:

- † Flowers given for the many blessings God has given each of us
- † In recognition of Life Sunday, a single rose has been placed on our baptismal font by Mary Yurk
- † A gift has been given to our School Endowment Fund in loving memory of Richard Thieme by his wife Emma
- † A gift has been given to Higher Things in loving memory of Janelle Mueller by her husband Ron

THIS WEEK WE CELEBRATE NATIONAL LUTHERAN SCHOOLS WEEK! National Lutheran Schools Week provides more than 1,800 preschools, elementary schools and high schools with the public opportunity to proclaim and celebrate God's work among us in schools of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. We thank God for the opportunity to provide excellent academic preparation for the children we serve. We are most grateful for the opportunity to share Jesus' amazing love with children and their families.

National Lutheran Schools Week gives us an opportunity to proclaim these great blessings within the communities we serve. Our schools are amazing incubators for faithful witness of God's love for us through Christ by teachers and students alike.

A CALL COMMITTEE has been appointed by the Board of Christian Day School for the position of School Principal. Members of the committee are Dave Jablonski, Nathan Wingfield, Nic Collins, Lori Ladiges, Pastor Mech and Tom Yurk (Chairman).

PRINCIPAL CALL INFORMATION: Trinity Lutheran Church and School is looking for names of candidates for School Principal, starting next school year. If you have a name of a qualified candidate, please contact Tom Yurk at 920-980-7531 or email him at tomyrk4@gmail.com. Thank you.

TRIVIA NIGHT deadline for dinner has passed but there's still time to participate in trivia! New this year, trivia is open for walk-ins. For $15 at the door, walk-ins will be assigned a table at arrival, no rsvp needed! The event is Saturday February 1st with trivia planned to start at 7:00 at The Bull in Sheboygan Falls.

DONATION APPRECIATED: To keep costs lower for the Higher Things High School Retreat (Feb 14-16) for the participants, we are asking for donations of food and grocery store gift cards for that weekend. Gift Cards (cash) donations are appreciated as we shop for milk, and perishables throughout the weekend. Other items that can be dropped off in advance in the kitchen include:

Lg bags Nacho Tortilla Chips, Lg bags Plain Potato Chips, Bags of Oranges, Bags of baby carrots, Granola Bars, Bananas, Canisters of Hot Cocoa Mix (void of marshmallows please), and Ritz Crackers

Label your donations: "Youth Retreat" and drop off by Thursday, Feb. 13th.

Baked item needs: Homemade muffins, brownies & quick breads for breakfast(s) and snacks are needed for the Retreat. Bakery may be dropped off in the kitchen Friday afternoon or anytime Saturday, Feb. 14/15. Devoured with appreciation!!

The Third Sunday after the Epiphany January 26, 2025

Introit

You will arise and have pity on | Zion;*

it is the time to favor her; the appointed | time has come.

Let this be recorded for a genera- | tion to come,*

so that a people yet to be created may | praise the LORD:

that he looked down from his | holy height;*

from heaven the LORD looked | at the earth,

to hear the groans of the | prisoners,*

to set free those who were | doomed to die,

that they may declare in Zion the name | of the LORD,*

and in Jerusa- | lem his praise,

when peoples gather to- | gether,*

and kingdoms, to wor- | ship the LORD.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*

and to the Holy | Spirit;

as it was in the be- | ginning,*

is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

You will arise and have pity on | Zion;*

it is the time to favor her; the appointed | time has come.

Collect of the Day

Almighty and everlasting God, mercifully look upon our infirmities and stretch forth the hand of Your majesty to heal and defend us; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Gradual

Praise the Lord, all | nations!*

Extol him, all | peoples!

For great is his steadfast | love toward us,*

and the faithfulness of the Lord endures for- | ever.

Ascribe to the Lord the glory | due his name;*

bring an offering, and come in- | to his courts!

Next Sunday's Readings: 1 Sam. 1:21-28; Heb. 2:14-18; Luke 2:22-32

THIS WEEK IN SUNDAY SCHOOL: The Bible lesson for this week is "All Overboard." After appealing his right as a Roman citizen, Paul sets sail for Rome under the guard of Julius, a centurion. They try to sail along the coast of Crete, but a fierce storm batters the ship for two weeks, pushing them out to sea. An angel tells Paul the ship will be lost but all aboard will survive. Paul encourages everyone to take heart and have some food. The soldiers cut loose the anchors, and the ship heads toward a beach, where it strikes a reef. All 276 who were aboard arrive safely ashore.

Notes on Today's Service

Treasures from the Church: 'Every once in a while, you hear the slogan, 'Every child a wanted child,' suggesting that we want to make sure no child comes into this world unwanted. Well, no child does come into this world unwanted. A lot of us Christians want that child and are willing to care for that child. But even if there were not a single Christian who wanted that child, God wants that child. The one who formed that child in the womb wants her or him so badly that he humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross, just so he could have that child — and all the rest of us sinners.' - Dr. James Lamb - Lutherans for Life

Today's Reading: When Jesus opens His mouth to preach, gracious words flow from His lips. The Scriptures are, indeed, fulfilled in your hearing (Luke 4:21-22). For Christ was anointed by the Spirit of the Lord "to proclaim good news to the poor," "to proclaim liberty to the captives" and "to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor" (Luke 4:18-19). By this proclamation, Christ releases His people from captivity and gathers them to Himself in His Church. So, it was when the Lord released His people from Babylon and returned them to Jerusalem. "Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people," sanctified the whole congregation by the reading and preaching of the Law (Neh. 8:8-9). As the people then were urged to "eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions to anyone who has nothing ready" (Neh. 8:10), so are you anointed by the Spirit of the Lord Jesus Christ to share in His feast and to serve the fellow members of His Body with His good gifts, "giving greater honor to the part that lacked it" (1 Cor. 12:12, 24).

Liturgy and Hymns: "The Liturgy and hymns of the church come to us, as it will come to every generation, as a gift from the past; as something having the weight and worth of a rich heritage. It is a treasure which we have, hold, and seek to transmit unimpaired and enriched to those who come after us. We admire its beauty and appreciate its worth as a representative expression of historic Christianity and of our common faith today. It is a monumental and glorious work of art. Understanding of God's gracious will and mastery of universal Christian experience have given it perfect proportion. A work of art and beautiful in itself, is the mother of all liturgical art. Noble architecture has built a home for it. Music has borne its text aloft on wings of a melody. Preaching has personalized its message. Vestments and ceremonies have clothed its dignity and grace. Thus, honored and enhanced by all the arts the Liturgy and hymnody of the church is a gift of the Christian centuries in our own time. The Church of today, however, as it studies and uses these beautiful forms, finds them instinct with life and power." - Luther Reed The Lutheran Liturgy p. 23

Sermon: Jesus has gifts for you! He has come here to this church, today, and has spoken to you. And not only spoken to you, but shined the light of His love upon you, washing you, forgiving you, feeding you, and giving you life. He comes to you when you are poor because you have spent your life chasing what doesn't last. He comes to you when you are captive to your sinful urges and desires. He comes to you when you are blinded by the glory of this world and deafened by the so-called wisdom of this world. He comes to you when you are oppressed by Satan, and by others Satan uses in his oppressive regime in this dark world. Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing for Jesus is here with all His gifts for you. To shine upon you. To proclaim to you a year, a lifetime, an eternity of the Lord's favor. He comes to give you the sanctity and beauty of life here and now and for all eternity.

Nehemiah 8:1-3, 5-6, 8-10

¹All the people gathered as one man into the square before the Water Gate. And they told Ezra the scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses that the LORD had commanded Israel. ²So Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could understand what they heard, on the first day of the seventh month. ³And he read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand. And the ears of all the people were attentive to the Book of the Law. . . . ⁵And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was above all the people, and as he opened it all the people stood. ⁶And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God, and all the people answered, "Amen, Amen," lifting up their hands. And they bowed their heads and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground. . . . ⁸They read from the book, from the Law of God, clearly, and they gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading. ⁹And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn or weep." For all the people wept as they heard the words of the Law. ¹⁰Then he said to them, "Go your way. Eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions to anyone who has nothing ready, for this day is holy to our Lord. And do not be grieved, for the joy of the LORD is your strength."

1 Corinthians 12:12-31a

¹²For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. ¹³For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit. ¹⁴For the body does not consist of one member but of many. ¹⁵If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. ¹⁶And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. ¹⁷If the whole body were an eye, where would be the sense of hearing? If the whole body were an ear, where would be the sense of smell? ¹⁸But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. ¹⁹If all were a single member, where would the body be? ²⁰As it is, there are many parts, yet one body. ²¹The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." ²²On the contrary, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, ²³and on those parts of the body that we think less honorable we bestow the greater honor, and our unpresentable parts are treated with greater modesty, ²⁴which our more presentable parts do not require. But God has so composed the body, giving greater honor to the part that lacked it, ²⁵that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another. ²⁶If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together. ²⁷Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. ²⁸And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helping, administering, and various kinds of tongues. ²⁹Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? ³⁰Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret? ³¹But earnestly desire the higher gifts.

Luke 4:16-30

¹⁶[Jesus] came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. And as was his custom, he went to the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and he stood up to read. ¹⁷And the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written, ¹⁸"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, ¹⁹to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." ²⁰And he rolled up the scroll and gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. ²¹And he began to say to them, "Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing." ²²And all spoke well of him and marveled at the gracious words that were coming from his mouth. And they said, "Is not this Joseph's son?" ²³And he said to them, "Doubtless you will quote to me this proverb, 'Physician, heal yourself.' What we have heard you did at Capernaum, do here in your hometown as well." ²⁴And he said, "Truly, I say to you, no prophet is acceptable in his hometown. ²⁵But in truth, I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heavens were shut up three years and six months, and a great famine came over all the land, ²⁶and Elijah was sent to none of them but only to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. ²⁷And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, and none of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian." ²⁸When they heard these things, all in the synagogue were filled with wrath. ²⁹And they rose up and drove him out of the town and brought him to the brow of the hill on which their town was built, so that they could throw him down the cliff. ³⁰But passing through their midst, he went away.
